

Economic Freedom and Democracy/Drugs/Technology

Economic Thinking for World Schools Debate

University of Bucharest • Thursday, Sept. 19, Friday, Sept. 20

Thursday Sessions: Economic Freedom and Public Policy

Friday Sessions: Economic Freedom and ARGO Open Motions

Address, room number, 9 am to 4 pm, lunch included

To Register: Diana Nasulea at contact@ies-europe.org

GREGORY REHMKE
ECONOMIC THINKING

Debate leads students to research the many sides of today's conflicts over populism, nationalism, trade, regulation, migration, energy, and the environment.

Speakers will explore the case for non-government approaches and for expanding economic freedom. On Friday, focus will be on ARGO motions (listed below).

OVIDIU NEACSU
SOLIB ROMANIA

RADU NECHITA
BABES -BOLYAI UNIVERSITY

ARGO Open prepared motions

We are very glad to announce the prepared motions for ARGO 2019!

R2: THBT the government should hand out free drugs to addicts

R3, Grand Final: THBT courts in emerging democracies should break up persistently dominant political parties

R5: THW forbid Western tech companies from accepting Chinese terms and preconditions in order to access the Chinese market (e.g. Google accepting censorship, Apple moving its servers to China, etc.)

Literati

CHRISTIAN NASULEA
UNIVERSITY OF BUCHAREST

IES
EUROPE

DIANA NASULEA
IES-EUROPE
CONTACT@IES-EUROPE.ORG