

ECONOMIC FREEDOM AND REFORMING CONGRESS

ECONOMICS - HISTORY - GOVERNMENT - DEBATE ECONOMIC THINKING WORKSHOP

- Date and Time: Usually 3 or 4 hours, morning/afternoon/evening.
- For More information: Contact Greg Rehmke, grehmke@gmail.com

How best to reform Congress? Limits on Congress terms have been proposed, following the Twenty-Second Amendment limits of two terms for President. The Institute for Free Speech argues against campaign finance reforms to limit campaign spending (but not media).

The Center for Freedom and Prosperity explains why spending caps are key. Common Sense Economics presents the principles of private and public (government) choice. Debates over DOGE cuts across federal agencies invite more transparency and Congressional spending control. CEI's Ten Thousand Commandments totals costs of the regulatory state.

What should be the role of Congress in a free society, for America's Federal Republic?

Spending Caps: A Proven Strategy for Fiscal Responsibility

Gregory Rehmke, grehmke@gmail.com

Resolved: The United States Federal Government should significantly reform Congress.

Over 10,000 homeschool students have attended Economic Thinking workshops on national debate topics. Economic Thinking workshops help students understand economics, public policy, and world affairs. Economic Thinking is a Seattle-based nonprofit.